

UNIVERSITY OF MEMPHIS SYMPOSIUM

Flourishing in the Delta: A Vision for Food and Agriculture in our Region

The symposium will showcase the University of Memphis and our newly established Institute's efforts in addressing research and educational opportunities in conservation, sustainable food and agriculture within our region.

To register, visit bit.ly/MemphisAgSymposium2024 as space is limited.

Save the Date

September 19-20, 2024

University of Memphis

FEATURED SPEAKERS

Marcelo Marzola

Exata Soil Health Labs, Brazil

Derris Burnett, Ph.D.

National Past-President MANRRS, Associate Professor, Department of Animal and Dairy Sciences, Mississippi State University, USA

J. Chris Pires, Ph.D.

Professor and Head, Department of Soil and Crop Sciences, Colorado State University, USA

Cindy Daley, Ph.D.

Director and Co-founder of the Center for Regenerative Agriculture & Resilient Systems; Rawlins Endowed Professor for Environmental Literacy; Organic Dairy Program Supervisor; Professor College of Agriculture, California State University, Chico, USA